

Liberty University Updates 'Hell House' for Next Generation

Liberty University is launching its annual Scaremare program. Scaremare is an update on the classic "hell house" formula, which is structured like a secular haunted house but scares guests with questions of what happens after they die, in an attempt to lead them to Jesus. On its website, Liberty reports, "Approximately 26,000 people have made decisions for Christ over the past two decades. Ironically, this House of Death points to the Way of Life!"
