{audio source_mp3="" source_ogg="" title="Conference Call with Matthew Barnett"}

Matthew Barnett knows how to take ministry outside the four walls of the church and transform entire communities with the gospel. He's watched the Dream Center in downtown Los Angeles grow from a group of 39 people in 1994 to reaching 40,000 every week. Listen as Barnett shares his approach to creative ministry and how you can make a lasting impact in your area.
