

Look Again

I was thanking the Lord for a word and it was very interesting. I had a vision and the vision was about a pause button, but it was a fake button. The Lord would say to you, "Satan has convinced you that you are on pause. He has convinced you that your life is not going forward; that the promises of God are not going to come true; that you're not going to be rescued; that things will never be different; that you'll never get the money you need or that you'll never get to the place you dreamed of."

But the Lord would say, "I want you to look again" because the Lord says that this is a fake pause. This is not a real pause; it is actually just taking a breath and the Lord is going to propel you into your new season. So, Father, I just pray right now and I break the power of any mind-binding spirits, anything that would tell people that their lives are just stuck and that they're going to stay at that level for the rest of their lives, whether it's sickness that has come or maybe they've had a blow emotionally or maybe it's during COVID or whatever it is.

The Lord says, "That is a false pause; you're not really stuck." So, rise up again and pull yourself up in your spirit and go back and dust off the prophecies that God has given you over your life. Dust off the promises that you have and say, "Okay, God, I can do all things through Christ! I am triumphant!" And the Lord says, "If you'll do this, you'll find a freshness come into your life. You will find that your own soul will begin to awaken and that you're going to be catapulted forward into your future," says the Lord. {eoa}
