

Lord, Please Change Me!

As part of our Christian life, we are being steadily transformed from the inside out. We are assured in God's Word that someday our transformation will be completed.

HEART ISSUE: Do you believe you are being transformed daily even when you can't see it outwardly? How have you changed since you met Christ?

PRAYER: Father, thank You for orchestrating my transformation through Your Spirit. Help me rest expectantly in my new, unfolding identity. Amen.
