

Louisiana Aviation Ministry Plans World's First Christian Airline

Since working with Operation Blessing during Hurricane Dorian, an aviation ministry based at the Shreveport regional airport in Shreveport, Louisiana, has made its mission one of transporting missionaries and their supplies to the communities most in need.

In the next year, Everett Aaron, founder of Judah 1, hopes to convert this private non-profit organization into the world's first Christian airline.

Find out how a prophetic vision spurred this dream inside his heart with a video from CBN News here.

Reprinted with permission from . Copyright The Christian Broadcasting Network, Inc., All rights reserved.