

Make a Difference Today

Ministry occurs when we least expect to make a difference.

When Paul and Silas sang hymns and prayed in prison, they didn't post about it on Facebook or take a selfie to show their devotion to the Lord.

Their location didn't change their actions. They didn't need a pulpit.

Their need to worship empowered their behavior. They didn't do it to be observed. They did it because this was how they lived.