

Man Tells Todd White He Went to Hell After Drug Overdose, But Jesus Saved Him

Recently, Todd White says he met a man who died from a drug overdose and went to hell itself. In the video, the man describes going to another realm and seeing “all these monsters.”

Then, White says, “Jesus comes in light and He looks at him and says, ‘I’m your brother,’ and grabs his hand, picks him up. The guy comes back into his body, and the paramedics are working on him.”
