

Man Who Spent 23 Minutes in Hell: How Seeing Hell Changed Me

People often ask how my vision of hell changed me.

First of all, seeing hell would change anyone! It was so horrifying, so far beyond words, that I couldn't stop thinking about it for the next entire year.

I would look at a group of people and think, "Most of these people are going to hell and don't realize it." I also asked myself, "What can I do to help reach them?"

Watch this video and discover the transformation I went through following my trip to hell. {eo}
