

Man Who Spent 23 Minutes in Hell: Is Eternity in Hell Really Justifiable?

Some people feel the punishment doesn't fit the crime, but do we understand Who we have sinned against? God is infinitely greater than any person, and therefore it is extremely offensive to sin against God. Even though God is love, He cannot let someone out of hell because they rejected what God values most: His Son. In this must-watch video, Bill Wiese, author of 23 Minutes in Hell, explains this complicated subject.
