

Man Who Spent 23 Minutes in Hell: What Happens After You Die?

It is usually stated at a funeral, "They have gone to a better place." That statement raises a few questions. Why do people think there is a better place? Why do we assume everyone goes to heaven? Do "good people" all go to heaven? Bill Wiese answers these important questions.