

Walk in Total Freedom from Fear

✖ From an early age, John Ramirez's life was tormented—by his dad, by the devil and by the demonic side. He walked with the devil for 25 years, and when he did something “wrong,” there was punishment. But since Jesus came into his life, John has lived in peace.

“Nothing missing, nothing broken,” he says. “But when I lived BC, before Christ, I lived in torment.”

The devil is an identity thief, operating in his number-one weapon—fear. He tries to steal your purpose, your destiny and God's best for your life. The devil's tactics can manipulate your life, your purpose, your destiny, your future, your family, your health and your finances. But you don't have to stay in fear and live that way—Jesus Christ can set you free.

Fear must be confronted to be conquered. John wrote “Destroying Fear” to teach others how to confront fear. With the love of God, you don't have to walk in fear, you can walk in faith and experience freedom.

Fear (unbelief) makes you feel that God is not powerful. Fear equals doubt, which makes you question God. If you deny the fear you're facing, you're feeding that fear. But when you confront that fear and get it out of your life, you can break that generational curse so fear doesn't pass to your children.

Partner with and be an overcomer with the Holy Spirit to have power over fear. Every door that's open to fear can be shut by the Holy Spirit.

John's book also shows how you can pray with purpose to destroy and dismantle whatever the enemy has gripped in your life with a spiritual-warfare arsenal. Another tactic to battle fear is to make confessions in the morning to face your day in victory.

Remember, Jesus commanded us to fear not. Stop the enemy's attacks once and for all, and live a life of freedom.
