

Mass Salvations, Changed Lives Break Out From the 'Navy SEALs of Evangelists'

Jesus didn't say, "Go and make converts." He said, "Go and make disciples."

Since 1987, Christ for all Nations has employed this model for evangelism, winning over 80 million souls to salvation.

Evangelist Daniel Kolenda and his team of on-fire men and women of God journeyed to Tanzania, Africa, in mid-April as a part of their Evangelism Bootcamp. In just the first week alone, the team saw 100,000 commit their lives to Christ.

As a bootcamp class here in Tanzania, we've seen over 100,000 decisions Christ in our first week on the field, but this...

The power and glory of God are spreading.

Zack Frapart is one member of Daniel Kolenda's missions team of over 90 evangelists who have spent the past couple weeks traveling to remote areas of Tanzania to reach those hungry for the Word of God. The team has two crusades happening this week from Wednesday through Sunday.

Charisma News spoke with Frapart to ask the best way believers can intercede for the evangelists. "[Pray] for God to save the whole of both cities! For Him to break the demonic strongholds that have been in both of these towns for generations, as they are 5% or less Christian. We want genuine repentance that changes the trajectory of this town."

Before even leaving their hotel one morning, the Lord brought a Muslim man to their doorstep. He suffered from extreme vertigo that would cause seizures. Watch this miraculous story to hear how God used Kolenda's team to minister to him.
