

Michael Brown: Why Reinhard Bonnke Stood Out From All Other Revival Leaders

Reinhard Bonnke was one of the most exceptional human beings I have ever known, a man who was truly larger than life.

When you were with him, you were with someone who seemed completely unaware of self, so focused was he on Jesus and the lost. And his relationship with God was so deep and real that he did not live for the praise of man nor was he moved by the criticism of man.

And now, at last, he is seeing the Lord face-to-face. May God raise up an army of evangelists in his memory, carrying the baton across America and the nations!
