

Mike Bickle: How IHOPKC Has Participated in This Prophetic Promise of the Bible

Mike Bickle reflects on the team of people he's had the privilege of working with over the last 20 years as he's led the International House of Prayer (IHOPKC). He thinks of a time when he got to witness many people in a room with their phone flashlights shining during an IHOPKC event, so much so that it resembled a starry night sky.

"In the 20-year anniversary, I just pondered and saw the stars in that flashlight moment with the phones and Abraham's promise—this massive family—and I thought, Lord, this is so beautiful. The Lord showed Abraham all those stars, and I thought, Lord, I got a little piece of that story."
