

Mike Bickle: How the Entire Old Testament Points to the 'Bridegroom God'

Mike Bickle, founder of the International House of Prayer in Kansas City, says the story of human history—from the first pages of the Old Testament—is that of God producing a prepared bride for a worthy Son. He says, “When we have that paradigm, it affects the way we approach the kingdom of God.” Bickle explores this concept in depth in this teaching, the first part of a series of teachings on the Old Testament.
