"It's been called the greatest political comeback in American history," says Cahn. "Whatever you think of Donald Trump, what he did was amazing. Everything against him—the legal cases, the lawfare, where the government and his enemies were waging war against him using the judicial system, few people would have risen after that."

Cahn notes Trump's strength was shown after he survived two assassination attempts and the unprecedented ridicule of Hollywood and the mainstream media. No other candidate had ever faced this kind of mockery and pressure.

'Golden Age of America' Coming as Prophetic Word Unfolds

President-elect Donald Trump's declaration of a coming "golden age of America" in his victory speech just may be part of the fulfillment of a prophetic word by Kim Clement.

Trump said he would focus on the border and vowed to be a champion for all Americans, ushering in an age of prosperity.

"Every citizen, I will fight for you, for your family and your future. Every single day, I will be fighting for you. And with every breath in my body, I will not rest until we have delivered the strong, safe and prosperous America that our children deserve and that you deserve," Trump told the crowd. "This will truly be the golden age of America. That's what we have to have. This is a magnificent victory for the American people that will allow us to make America great again."
