

Morris Cerullo: It's Time to 'Seek the Face of God' in Prayer

Morris Cerullo urges believers to use the power of prayer and seek the face of God like King Jehoshaphat of Judah. Cerullo says, "The Bible says Jehoshaphat set himself to seek the face of God. He did not allow Moab. He did not allow Mount Seir. He did not allow all of these armies of the enemy that were uniting to come against him and to destroy Israel. He set himself to prayer." He then tells anyone suffering from a problem, "This can be your moment when you will pass the test of the trial that is rising up against your life. You can come to that particular moment where you will have the opportunity to turn from the negative and call upon the power of prayer." Watch the full video of Cerullo's encouraging word here.
