

Nassar Victim Blasts Abuser With Bold Biblical Truth of God's Wrath—And Mercy

“The Bible you carry says it is better for a millstone to be thrown around your neck and you be thrown into a lake than you to make even one child stumble,” Rachael Denhollander tells Larry Nassar. “And you have damaged hundreds.” It’s part of Denhollander’s powerful victim statement, which she delivered in court as Nassar, her former doctor, faced a litany of sexual abuse and assault charges. In total, 156 victims suffered at his hands. But Denhollander says the grace of God sustained her, and she’s not afraid to speak of her Creator’s wrath for those who refuse to repent. But she also knows the power of forgiveness. Take a look.
