

Never Fall Short

☒ God has freely given us the tools we need to live a holy life that pleases Him—that's fabulous news! There's no need to fall short. The writer of Hebrews tells us:

“, without which no one will see the Lord: looking carefully lest anyone fall short of the grace of God.” (12:14-15, NKJV)

The main point here is clear: We need the grace of God to walk in true holiness. We might ask, “If, as we've been taught, grace is only about forgiveness, then what does ‘fall short’ mean in this verse?” The Greek word here is hustereo. Strong's Concordance defines it as “to be inferior, to fall short (be deficient), come behind, be destitute, fail.” Thayer's Lexicon goes into more depth by stating that this word's meaning is “to be left behind in the race and so fail to reach the goal, to fall short of the end.”

Holiness is crucial to finishing our race well. Hear the prophet Isaiah's words: “There will be a highway there, called ‘The Road of Holiness.’ No sinner will ever travel that road; no fools will mislead those who follow it. No lions will be there; no fierce animals will pass that way. Those whom the LORD has rescued will travel home by that road. They will reach Jerusalem [heaven] with gladness, singing and shouting for joy. They will be happy forever, forever free from sorrow and grief.” (35:8–10, TEV)

God says that when we walk in the power of the grace of God, bearing true fruits of holiness, we are invincible because of Him.

Isaiah says that no fierce animal, such as a bear or lion, will be able to take us out! (This includes our supreme enemy, Satan, who walks about as “a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour” [1 Peter 5:8].) So, we have no reason to fail when we produce fruits of holiness through the power of God’s grace. This ability is not because of us but because of Him. We must abide in the grace of God in order to live holy, fruitful, extraordinary lives!

Marked by boldness and passion, John Bevere delivers uncompromising truth through his award-winning curriculum and best-selling books now available in over sixty languages. His newest book is Extraordinary: The Life You’re Meant to Live. More information is available at .