

Nothing Else Satisfies

Since the age of 13, Perri Costley has been burdened with a message that transcends her youth. She says nothing can satisfy believers in Christ like the Holy Spirit can, not music, people or the latest “new thing.” She says, “The Spirit of God is sweeter and tastes better, and is way more attractive and effective than anything that the world makes that we could put in our churches.” To hear Perri share her heart, watch the videos below.
