

October Prophecy: 'In This Season There Is an Urgency to Confidently Obey'

Just a few days before the month of October, I was in a time of prayer. I was seeking the Lord for wisdom and making decrees over certain areas and people in my life.

The Lord spoke to me and said, "These answers are obvious. Do the obvious things." I moved on that word, and each of those situations worked out perfectly. I believe God is pouring out His Spirit on many people in this season.

As they spend time with Him, they will begin to flow with the Holy Spirit as never before. Many try to make walking with God complicated and mysterious. We often try to make hearing from God a long, drawn-out process, but in this season, there is an urgency to confidently obey. There is a place you can get to with God where you are walking hand in hand with the Holy Spirit and when you pray, you will receive obvious answers.

Many have been praying for months or even years about certain situations or circumstances. In the month of October, solutions and answers to those prayers are going to be obvious. Get ready for the obvious in October!

You will be able to move confidently with the Holy Spirit. God will speak to many people this month to do the obvious. God will highlight needs and assignments for individuals in this season and make it obvious to them to step out and do it!

When the obvious is right in front of us, we can easily talk ourselves out of it or look for someone else to do something. However, I believe this is a strategic season where God is going to make things obvious to His sons and daughters and call them to go for it without questioning His call.

This is a season to walk closely with the Holy Spirit and be led by His guidance and instruction. There are specific assignments that God is releasing to individuals, ministries and businesses that must be taken on. God needs for His people to take whatever heaven is saying and fulfill it in the earth.

Whatever God is speaking will become obvious to those who are willing to be obedient and boldly step out. Take ownership this month of whatever God is making obvious to you. This is not a season to hesitate! This is a season to act and move forward confidently by faith. God will use you to advance the kingdom of heaven in the earth in this season. Manifest the kingdom of God and move on the obvious in the month of October. {eoa}
