

One of the Most Important Traits You Need in These Perilous Times

All of us face ongoing challenges and hardships in our lives. Whether they be physical, financial, marital, relational or otherwise, God intends for suffering to produce perseverance so that we enjoy closer communion with Him, and see our character mature and emerge victorious.

We are living in what the Bible describes as “perilous times” (see 2 Tim. 3:1), and we need hope until we experience our breakthroughs for the glory of God! This brief video will inspire and equip you with a biblically informed worldview in these turbulent times.

Be sure to check out the “Here’s the Deal” podcast daily by Larry Tomczak on the Charisma Podcast Network for 15 minutes of engagement and encouragement.