

Out of Many, One

There is an unfulfilled mandate of God for our country. We must make sure that the forces of racial hatred and division are all crushed by righteousness and our love for one another.

HEART ISSUE: What can you do to keep alive the founding vision of America?

PRAYER FOCUS: Father, I know that Your great mandate for racial peace and love and harmony begins with individuals. Use me today, in small and big ways, to reach others of all races with Your love for them. Amen.
