

Pastor Greg Laurie: An Invasion of Demons Is Coming in the Last Days

Satan will be trying to wreak as much havoc as he can during the Great Tribulation, says Pastor Greg Laurie of Harvest Christian Fellowship in Riverside, California.

“Why? Because he knows his days are numbered. ... He wants to do as much damage as he can until Christ comes back.”

As a part of this, he explains in his teaching on Revelation 9, an invasion of demons will be released.

“These are supernatural soldiers from the kingdom of darkness,” he says of the apostle John’s description. “This is an invasion of demons in the last days that are very aggressive. The symbolic descriptions that John used are there to describe aggression in force as well as power, intelligence and ferocity.”
