

Pastors Wanted for a Free Trip to Israel

If you've ever been to Israel, you know that it is a life-changing experience. My first trip was almost 30 years ago. I'll write more about that at another time.

I was recently asked to help find pastors who'd like to visit the Holy Land. The Israel Ministry of Tourism is willing to fly pastors who meet a certain criteria to Israel free of charge. The trip has been dubbed a "familiarization tour." For more information send an e-mail to mark@. I'm reaching out to you for help. I'm hoping that we will find some good candidates and generate more interest in our new e-newsletter, Standing With Israel.

It's known that the best way to grow anything on the Internet is through viral marketing. I'm asking you to read and forward our new Standing With Israel e-newsletter and my Strang Report. I am motivated to double the circulation of the Strang Report in the next three months, but I need your help.
