

Pat Robertson, 'The 700 Club' Help Launch 'God and Donald Trump'

God and Donald Trump releases today, Nov, 7. This is the day I've been anticipating for quite some time. Yesterday, we launched it on The 700 Club with Pat Robertson; he did a great interview.

I was also interviewed by Charlene Aaron in more of a news setting, plus I had a sit-down interview with Gordon Robertson that was a little more lengthy. Perhaps the most enjoyable part of the trip was appearing on The 700 Club's Facebook Live telecast.

I was encouraged by the positive feedback I got even from staffers who have had an opportunity to read the book. They felt it was needed and found it interesting.

Thanks to presales, God and Donald Trump has risen to No. 1 on Amazon in the category called Christian Social Issues as well as in the political Conservatism and Liberalism Category, and No. 38 in the Religion and Spirituality category. While this literally changes by the hour, the book was at No. 147 of all books sold on Amazon at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday, and at No. 191 on Barnes and Noble. Can you tell I am excited?

Thank you to everyone who preordered a copy. If you liked the book, add your review and give it rating of five stars on Amazon, or Barnes and Noble. Launch day—today, Nov. 7—is the first day reviews are allowed.

Take time to view the links of The 700 Club interviews. It is always a blessing to be a guest there. Everything they do is first-rate. And Gordon Robertson, who is now the CEO, has a wonderful staff.

Discuss the book with your friends. It is available everywhere books are sold. I first saw it on the store shelf in Virginia Beach when I visited Barnes and Noble. Since this is my first major book, it was a thrilling moment for me.

I invite you to download a sample chapter by clicking here. See our exciting video trailer about the book.
