

Pentecostal Televangelist Ernest Angley Dies at 99

Rev. Ernest Angley passed away on Friday at the age of 99, according to an announcement shared through his ministry.

“Pastor, evangelist, and author Rev. Ernest Angley has gone to Heaven to be with His Lord and Master at 99,” read a statement on the website of Ernest Angley Ministries. “He touched multitudes of souls worldwide with the pure Word of God confirmed with signs, wonders, miracles, and healings. He truly pleased God in all things.”

Pastor, evangelist and author Rev. Ernest Angley has gone to Heaven to be with his Lord and Master at 99. He touched multitudes of souls worldwide with the pure Word of God. He truly pleased God in all things. Check for updates.

– Ernest Angley Ministries (@EAMTweets) May 7, 2021

The televangelist led Grace Cathedral church in Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, in the Cleveland-Akron area for several decades, FOX 8 of Cleveland reported.

At the age of 20, he attended the Church of God Bible Training School in Tennessee and met his wife, Esther Lee – known as “Angel.” She was 49-years-old when she passed away in 1970.

For more on his incredible legacy of faith, read the full story from our content partners at CBN News. {eo}