

Popular Actor Shares How Hollywood Changed His Christian Faith

Tony Hale recently gave an interview about his approach to comedy, art and faith. During that interview, he shared about how he initially came to Hollywood as a young Christian with grand ideas—"What's God going to do through me?"—only to realize that the person who truly needed to change and grow was himself. Listen to his testimony in this video.