

Practice Being in His Presence

Remember when you first came to faith in Christ? Your time alone with Him left you smitten. Each day you yearned for more of His presence and power. But life's challenges, personal issues and sometimes unconfessed sin have snuffed out the flames that once kindled your relationship with God. We can all have intimate fellowship with Jesus, but we must practice being in His presence, laying down everything to draw closer to Him.

{youtube}1Wj4LN_64tQ{/youtube}