

Praying with Prophetic Power

As God's representatives on Earth, we have the authority to speak for Him. When we speak under the leading of the Holy Spirit, we speak as His mouthpiece.

During strategic times, the Lord will prompt us to pray very specific prayers that will bring His will to bear in a given situation.

When God the Father makes known His intentions to Jesus, Jesus makes them known to the church. Then the church has the responsibility to make God's intentions known to the evil powers through proclamations of His will. The result of this chain of events is spiritual breakthrough.

READ: Jer. 20:7-12; Ezek. 37:1-14; Ps. 39:1-3; Matt. 10:27-31; Acts 4:13-31; Eph. 3:8-12,20.

HEART ISSUE: There are situations in our lives into which God wants to breathe new life just as He breathed new life into the dry bones when Ezekial prophesied. What are those areas in your life?

PRAYER FOCUS : Father, we want to pray the right prayer at the right moment, but often we find it easier to bury those things that resist change. Strengthen us to stand in faith. Empowered by the Holy Spirit, we will declare the word and will of God and see circumstances transformed for Your glory. Amen.
