

Prophecy: 2020 Is a Dividing Line

I've been hearing in the Spirit for weeks now that 2020 is going to be a dividing line. In these last weeks of 2019, believers are going to have to make a decision. Are they going to go where the Lord wants to lead them in 2020 or are they going to stay behind and not be a part of His plan?

I keep hearing, "This is where the rubber meets the road," which means, this is where the action begins and we get serious.

I've felt this is the time we need to get serious about the things of God. We need to get rock-solid strong in our faith.

I believe 2020 is going to be one of the best years yet, but I also believe it is going to be a turbulent year. I believe the launching of ministries, the revival that is coming to our country, and the exposure of people and ministers who have waited to be elevated will come to pass. But I also believe the Lord is saying our faith has to get rock-solid strong for what is coming in 2020.

The year we are approaching will be a rocky year with confusion and chaos with the pending presidential election and the country divided in politics. It is going to be a year where we experience unfair and foul play in the political arena. I believe there is going to be a shaking and quaking in our land. Natural disasters, terrorist attacks and even our own government planning sabotage attacks against the election are in store for the future.

The Lord is saying, "Be in faith, so when fear wants to come forth, your faith is already rock-solid strong." How can we be in faith and be the light and love of Christ that the world is going to need when we are in fear? We can't exude God's love and at the same time be paralyzed in fear, anxiety and nervousness at the world's economy, events and happenings.

There is a dividing line. We have a choice to make. Jesus got in the boat and went to the other side in Mark 4. Are we going to the other side? Are we crossing the line and moving forward with the things of the Lord despite opposition? Are we going to get serious about our walk with the Lord? It is time the rubber meets the road, the place and the time where the action begins.

Are you ready to step up and do what the Lord has called you to do and go where He is calling you to go? You have a choice to make—stay in the past of 2019 in defeat, or cross the line into a victorious, overcoming mentality and supernatural, spiritual walk full of faith for 2020. {eoa}
