

Prophecy: A Breaker's Anointing Is Coming Upon the Land

A breaker's anointing is coming upon the land.

I am seeing a hard land, dry dirt, no life—just a solid piece of hard ground. I see the ground with cracks running through it—cracks breaking up the dry, hard dirt—cracks breaking apart the hard and difficult places in your life.

I hear the Lord saying, “Difficulty has been your portion, but I am breaking up the difficulty in your lives—the places where you have felt stuck, the places where your flesh has been confined, and the places where the enemy has attacked. I am gathering my forces to activate on your behalf and break up the hard-fallow ground that has been before you.”

I see water running across the dry land that has been in your life. I see it pouring down the cracks and bringing moisture to what was once dry. It is time to press through for your breakthrough.

In the natural, we cannot take a drink of water unless we put our hand around the glass, move our arm to bring it up to our mouth and then open our mouth, take a sip and drink it. It is the same with our spiritual dryness. Even though the Lord is breaking up the ground, we have something to do about our situation.

We cannot always sit idly by waiting for the Lord to do the supernatural when we won't co-labor with Him to do the natural. We have a part to play in our prophecy manifesting; the Bible says, “Prophecy in part” (1 Cor. 13:9). What part are you doing or what part aren't you doing that you need to start doing?

When the Lord was showing me the dry land, He was revealing it to me like an earthquake. When the earth quakes and trembles and the ground opens up, in order to repair the ground, it must be filled up with something so that roads can be built again and the land can come back together and be as it was.

It is the same with our spiritual lives. We must fill it with something. We must co-labor with the very Spirit of God. We must fill the cracks in our lives.

We experience hard land because of spiritual warfare attacks, our fleshly choices and actions, and because of trauma and other situations that are beyond our control. However, if we continually seek the Lord and stay in His presence and in His word then when life's happenings invade us and demonic attacks rise against us, we can be strong and stand firm and not allow outward circumstances to affect our inward thinking and condition of our heart.

I see 2020 and this hard land that the Lord is coming to break up. The question is, what are you going to do to fill it?
