

Prophecy: A New Generation Shall Dig a New Well in America

It's a spiritual principle that I'm teaching you right now about what was dug for us. I'm not speaking to you as an individual—your forefathers, those that prayed for you, that sowed. I'm talking about America, that which was labored for.

Many evil humanists have stopped those wells up and said, "We don't want this to happen; we don't want righteousness." If some of them had their own way, they'd shut down every church in this country. Hear what I'm saying. What is ours by inheritance, which our forefathers dug for us, for this nation, that they've tried to stop up and whoever takes occupation says, "It belongs to us; we can stop it up if we want, even if by right it is yours."

"This is not going to happen," says the Spirit of God. "These wells that were given to you, America, by your forefathers—wells of righteousness, wells of liberty—that were given to you and now they are stopping up and saying, 'They may be yours by inheritance, but they're ours because we have rulership and occupation.'" God says, "This will not happen, for a new well shall be dug by a new generation." That's powerful just that alone.

I hope you're hearing me, everybody. God has big plans for this nation and the whole world is looking at America. Don't tell me they're not. The whole world is looking, and they're looking at the economy and they're laughing at us saying, "These people don't know what they're doing." Well, that's changing.

I felt the Spirit come upon me to say this and I think you understand what I'm saying. What did our forefathers do? They dug these wells of salvation and deliverance and righteousness so we could be Christian people, a Christian nation ... Don't take this lightly, America. He speaks to Isaac and says, "I am going to multiply you, do not fear." Do not fear. God says, "Do not fear."
