

Prophecy: Expect the Unexpected & Sudden God-Encounters

The Lord spoke to me clearly when I was in Singapore: “Expect the unexpected.” When I meditated on this, He showed me many things, including sudden encounters with God.

In this season, we’re going to see God move in extraordinary ways. Of course, we have to position ourselves in faith to believe and receive. That’s why I’ve filmed this teaching video to unpack the prophecy with Scriptures that will build your faith and prepare your heart for what God is doing in this season.