

Prophecy: It's Showtime!

In the spirit, I saw on giant marquees in front of theaters, hotels and many buildings throughout the world, the words, "It's Showtime!" The Lord was announcing to Planet Earth that He was coming to show up in a sovereign way to heal, deliver and manifest His glory.

It was a kairos time to show and tell cities and nations what He had to offer. Just when we thought every light on Earth had gone out and the stars had fallen from their sockets, His light was returning to the world, expelling darkness.

I was amazed as I saw Him overruling people's belief systems and revealing Himself to them. He was touching atheists who didn't believe in Him, but He believed in them. Witches, those who follow the occult, Hollywood stars and many of His own people who through great trials, afflictions and hope deferred had turned away from Him were still being pursued by Him.

It was a day of His appearing once again as He was making public appearances throughout the world by visions and dreams to individuals, including world leaders and mass gatherings. To many, He was the uninvited guest who had invited Himself. {eoa}
