

Prophecy: Realignments, Reassignments and Divine Disconnections

I heard the Lord say, “The season of realignment is upon you, but there is a purpose in the realignment. I am bringing My people into a realignment for a reassignment.

“I am re-assigning people in My body—repositioning them for maximum impact. In past seasons, you climbed as high in the Spirit as you could in your current surroundings. You got comfortable with what you knew and who you ran with. I am shaking things up to spur you to greater things, to greater works.”
