

Prophecy: The Lord Says, in 2020, 'I Am Breaking the Curse, You Shall See What You Speak'

Though past years were difficult, says prophetic minister Hakeem Collins, God will bring restoration and miraculous fulfillment in this new year. Collins says God gave him the following prophecy about curses being replaced with healing:

“‘And in the last decade,’ says the Lord, ‘many of you have faced persecution; you have faced slander; you have faced even false accusers. You have faced some gossip,’” Collins says. “‘... You even heard bad reports from doctors, but surely,’ says the Lord, ‘I am reversing the curse, and I am breaking the curse. And I’m causing you to move into a season of divine fulfillment, for you shall see what you speak.’”

Just as God restored Job’s possessions and kids to him in the Bible, 2020 will be a year in which the things you thought you’d lost will come back to you, Collins says on the Prophetic Breakthrough podcast on the Charisma Podcast Network.

“The Lord says, ‘I am giving you a voice,’” Collins says. “‘I am amplifying your voice. I am increasing your capacity. I’m enlarging your territory. ... You will begin to reconcile; you will begin to look after those things that you felt like it was lost. ... I will relocate what you thought you have lost, and I will redeem the time and I will restore the years.’”

To listen to the entire episode for more New Year’s encouragement, click here.