

Prophecy: Warfare Is Raging Against Spirit-Led Writers, but Angels Are on Their Way

"Can you believe that God showed me a cloud to remind me to keep on writing? The cloud was a fist holding a pen, but the way the pen was held was positioned like it was ready to stab. Can you see it?" (iMarie Basco, Cebu City, Philippines)

Much warfare is raging against potential writers. The enemy is trembling if you are even thinking of picking up a pen. I saw angels filling up pens with Holy Ghost ink. Words written with resurrection power will heal the sick, raise the dead and cast out devils. Anointed funeral readings may interrupt the service.

I sense the Lord saying: "These writings under My unction will have built-in radar to find their readers. Through them, men, women and children will rise to take the kingdoms of this world. My roof-tearing angels have been released and they have your address for prime-time delivery."

I see angels with slingshots hurling books into the new year, hitting the foreheads of giants.

There will be those who change history with a pen. An innocent pen will become the axis that will turn the world upside down. The Lord is anointing hands to war and fingers to fight. Does writing interest you? I dare you to pick up that pen!

"Blessed be the Lord my strength, who prepares my hands for war, and my fingers to fight" (Ps. 144:1). {eo}
