

Prophetic Dream: People in the Body of Christ Need Emergency Care

I recently had a prophetic dream that my wife and I walked into an emergency waiting room. This emergency room was packed full of people waiting for care.

My wife and I were sitting in a corner of the room watching. Then suddenly, a man came into the waiting room and took someone out. Then a woman came in and took someone else out. Then a family came in and took another person out.

When I woke up, the Lord began to give me the interpretation of this dream. How many people feel like they are in an emergency spiritually? How many people in the body of Christ need emergency care? I believe what God was showing me in the dream is every time we are obedient and step out to do whatever He has called us to do, we are pulling people out of an emergency situation.

Each time you make a post, show the love of God, write a book or a blog, preach a sermon or pray for someone, you are pulling them out of an emergency. If every person in the body of Christ was fully walking in their purpose and destiny, then few people would find themselves in a spiritual emergency.

Listen, my friends, the world needs you to do what God has assigned for you to do because there are people that only you can reach. You have revelation and insight that someone out there needs, and it's time for you to step out and let your voice be heard!

What has God placed inside you that others need to hear, see, read or listen to? What are you robbing the world and the body of Christ of that is on the inside of you? You need to get whatever God has placed inside you; you need to get it out! You need to step into your destiny and pull people out of their spiritual emergency.

Whether you are a minister, a pastor, an intercessor, a school teacher, a doctor, a housewife or grandparent, your calling is the key to unlock someone else's destiny. Each time you pull someone out of the emergency they find themselves in, you are changing countless other lives by just touching that one person.

You are important in the kingdom of God, and this is not a time to be caught idly sitting by. This is a season to be diligent to get the things God has placed inside of you out into the world so that those who are in an emergency can be rescued out! {eoa}
