

Prophetic Dream: Take Hold of Your Completed Promise in July

On May 29, I had a prophetic dream about the month of July. The Lord showed me that many have birthed their promise, but have yet to take hold of it completely.

In the dream, I was holding my friend's baby and was specifically asking to go down to the lake to take a photo of the baby and me. My friend responded that I had to wait for her sister to go before me and that I would have to wait until July to take the picture with the baby.

In the dream, I was wearing a V-neck bathing suit with a coverup from the waist down; the bathing suit was white with light pink polka-dots. I was dressed and ready to go, holding the baby, and standing where the lake was in visible distance, but I had to wait until July. I then immediately went into another dream that confirmed what the baby or "promise: represented.

As I began to interpret with the Lord on this, I looked up the names of the individuals in the dream, and then the meaning became crystal clear. My friend's name means "God is my oath" or "God is a vow"; her husband's name means "God is my judge"; the baby's name means "completely"; their last name means "fire"; and my friend's sister's name means "Christ" or "anointed one." Therefore, the interpretation of the dream is as God is my judge, and as God is my oath, He is watching over the promise and all that He has vowed, and by the power of His Word, Christ is going before to bring it to completion.

This timing is pivotal because many are going through the last fires before beholding their promise; do not relent even if these fires carry over in July, as you are almost there! July is the seventh month, and seven represents completion and perfection in the Bible. My birthday is July 1, and the baby will turn seven months July 31. The Lord is going to bring His promises to completion in your life during the month of July, from beginning to end. Watch in this window as many will finally be able to see the picture with clarity and with physical reality. I hear the Lord say, "This is the promise that has been refined in the fire," which symbolically ties into the last name of the mother and father of the baby.

In the dream, I wanted to take a picture at the lake with the baby. My friend and her family live in Michigan, and Michigan is also the state where I was born and raised, home of the Great Lakes. Lake Superior is the largest freshwater lake in the world by surface area. July will be the beginning of the refreshing of your soul, as you sync with the Lord's timing and wait for Him to go before you. The Holy Spirit will then totally immerse you into this new land and will work a far superior outcome for you.

The time stamp of the dream was and coincides with Genesis 5:29 (AMPC): "When Lamech was 182 years old a son was born (v. 28). He named him Noah, saying, this one shall bring us relief and comfort from our work and the [grievous] toil of our hands due to the ground being cursed by the Lord." Lamech named his son Noah, which means "rest."

Like a Noah, this promise you are holding represents the long-awaited rest, new covenant and land in the new era the Lord has vowed to you. Lamech lived 777 years, and 7 seven times three equals 21; the dream date was May 29, 2021. Additionally, three represents the number of the Spirit, and there are three sevens at the end of Lamech's life and three trimesters in pregnancy, not to mention water and the Spirit are closely connected.

Symbolically, the Father is washing away ties to the old season by the Spirit, resetting you by the Spirit through rest and bringing to completion that which was born of the Spirit!
