

Prophetic Dream: This Is the Time to Accelerate With Blind Faith

I recently had a vivid and powerful prophetic dream that I immediately sensed was for many people in the body of Christ.

In the dream, I was driving down a two-lane road at night. The road was surrounded by beautiful country scenery. It appeared to be a brand new freshly laid road with fresh asphalt and paint. On the side of both lanes there was a solid white line, and in the middle were two solid yellow lines.

It was a beautiful clear night, and as I kept driving, the white lines on the sides of the road ended. The road started to bend and as I made the turn, the new road turned into an older, worn road.

This road was not as smooth and had no middle yellow lines. The road ahead became foggy and the sky was no longer clear. Then, in the dream, I heard the Lord say, "This is when you accelerate."

When I woke up from the dream, I started to pray and ask the Lord what it all meant. Everything at the beginning of the dream was easy. The road was smooth and straight, and I could see the road ahead clearly. Then, the older, bumpy road was foggy and unclear as I took the turn.

So, then, why would God tell me to accelerate then instead of at the beginning of the dream on the smooth road? The Lord spoke to me so clearly, "This is the time to accelerate with blind faith."

I believe that for many, this season has felt like that bumpy, foggy road where many things have seemed unclear. However, I believe this is the time to accelerate with blind faith! If all you see is fog, don't slow down.

Begin to accelerate with confidence and trust that God knows the road ahead of you even if it is unclear to you right now. If we wait until everything seems perfect and comfortable in the natural to accelerate, we will miss what God is wanting to teach us and where He is taking us. Accelerate with blind faith despite what your natural eyes may be telling you.

In this season, we cannot afford to stay in our comfort zones or hesitate to accelerate because of uncertainty. Keep moving forward, and as you accelerate, God will make the road ahead of you clear, and you will reach your purpose and destiny in this season! God is calling the body of Christ in America and in the nations of the world to follow Him boldly with blind faith in this hour. We are about to experience outpouring and revival as never before, and we will need to operate with blind faith as we step into it.

Keep driving through the fog. It will eventually clear, and you will see what God was doing in the midst of it. Change is coming in the body of Christ, in America and in the nations of the world. Now is the time to accelerate!

Do not lean on your own understanding or your natural reasoning or senses in this hour. Accelerate with blind faith, and you will find yourself right in the middle of what God is doing in you, your city or region and in the world! Accelerate with blind faith! {eoa}
