

Prophetic Minister: How God Provides Even When the Future Is Unknown

Despite COVID-19, we can trust that God will give us peace and provide for our needs, says author and prophetic minister Patricia King. We just have to take it one day at a time, believing in Him to take care of the uncertain future.

“Any area in your life where there has been some oppression, lack of freedom, demonic assault or anything that has kept you fully from soaring into who you are in Christ and what you have in Him—that has kept you from living a true kingdom life—I believe God is saying to you, ‘This is your crossover season,’” Kings says. “God wants to bring you into freedom. He wants to establish you in His love like never before. ...

“I have been through times personally in my life where we have had assault on our personal finances, where there was no visible means of financial support whatsoever, and yet God came through every single day as long as we looked to Him. Every day we went to bed that night counting our blessings because He had taken care of us one more day. It’s just a matter of looking to Jesus one day at a time.”
