

Prophetic Vision: 'God Will Pour Out His Spirit Like Never Before'

I recently had a vision of a huge reservoir. It was so large that it stretched as far as I could see. There was a tree line on each side and a very small stream of water coming out on one side.

The Lord began to speak to me and show me that many people are like this reservoir. They have many giftings and abilities they can offer to others and to the kingdom of God. There are many people who like reservoirs, have so much to offer and have so much depth to them, but all they can see is the one small stream on the outside.

The vision shifted, and I could tell the reservoir was beginning to break open. As it broke open, all the reserved water began to gush out. Like walls that contain the water in a reservoir fear, insecurity, complacency and wrong mindsets can hold back your potential.

Don't allow anything to keep what God has placed inside of you to lie dormant within you any longer! The world needs what God has placed inside you. This is a season where God is breaking reservoirs and releasing many to get what God has put inside them flowing out into the world.

The Lord also began to show me that the reservoir is also a picture of the kingdom of God. The small stream of water is like each of our individual lives. We have only tapped into a small stream of the fullness of God. If we could see the reservoir of heaven, we would believe for so much more.

I believe an overflow is going to hit many believers in this season as the reservoirs begin to break. As we tap into all that God has for us, we will each overflow with God's favor and blessing. God is about to pour out His Spirit like never before and I believe we will see a reservoir of God's Spirit spill out in the season. As the reservoir of the kingdom of God spills out, the raw power of God will show up and transform many people's lives.

Don't allow any limitations to hold back what God wants to do in and through you in this season. Step into the overflow! God is looking for those who are properly positioned in this time to flow through. There is a reservoir breaking, and you need to get what is inside you out into the world. The kingdom of God has so much more than we have been tapping into. It's time to let the reservoir break and see the waters come pouring out! {eoa}
