

Prophetic Vision: I Saw a Huge Tidal Wave of Promises Crashing Over God's People

I have never been more excited about how God is moving and what God is ready to release into the earth through His people.

God keeps speaking to me about so many people who are one decision away from their God-given destiny and dream. God has been shifting and shaking His people to get them ready for what He is about to do. Don't quit now; your breakthrough is coming. Your destiny is so obtainable. It is right at your fingertips.

Early one morning, as I was praying, I saw a huge tidal wave crashing over the people of God. As I saw this tidal wave in the Spirit, I knew it was made up all of the prayers, promises and prophetic words from past seasons. The Lord spoke clearly to me that every promise and every prophetic word that has been given in past seasons will come to pass in this next one.

Past-season promises will be fulfilled in this next season. But don't be surprised if in this next season, despite the tidal wave, the enemy will try to release opposition. We must decide if the next season of fulfillment is worth this season of trial. My wife, Autumn, recently said this, "God is wanting you to say yes to your next season before you know what it is."

You will make it to the next season if you have that "Yes" deep down in your spirit.

I love what James 1:2-4 says, "Count it all joy when you fall into diverse temptations, knowing that the trying of your faith develops patience. But let patience perfect its work, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking nothing." Every trial and every hard situation you are facing is preparing you to be complete, lacking nothing. You will be found lacking nothing when this tidal wave of purpose and destiny comes crashing onto the shore of your life!

Think about the waves out in the ocean. They are drawn out and then come back crashing on the shore. The destiny God has for your life is just like those waves.

When you encounter trials, tribulations, accusations and setbacks, don't be frustrated. When you encounter warfare and hard times, rejoice. Don't ever let the enemy steal your joy. God is using those things to pull those waves of destiny in your life back. When God gets ready to release all those things to you, that tidal wave of God's destiny and purpose for your life will come crashing over you.

This tidal wave of destiny and purpose is about to come crashing into your life to launch you into your purpose.

Years of prophetic words, dreams and promises from heaven have been stacking up to become an incredible tidal wave. Everything you need to fulfill that dream that God has placed inside of you for His kingdom is about to come to you in this tidal wave. Provision, resources, purpose, healing, and kingdom alignments are coming in with this tidal wave.

Get ready! God is about to release His promises and blessings like a powerful tidal wave that will overtake you. {eo}
