

Prophetic Vision: 'Prayer Answers Will Go Off the Chart'

I recently had a prophetic vision of a chart. The line was gradually going up the axis of the chart. The line was sort of jagged from increases and small decreases. The line quickly rose so high that the line went off the chart.

It was like a chart you would see used in the stock market, to measure productivity or to track value of investments. I felt the Lord speak to me and say, "What many people have been praying for their answers will go off the chart." The Lord continued to speak to me and the Lord said, "The line is what I'm tracing. I'm tracing the mountain of prayer."

When things seem to be accelerating and success is coming to you in your life, you are going off the chart! But the reason this is happening in your life is directly correlated to the time you have spent in prayer. Prayer is the foundation in our lives that will sustain whatever God does in and through our lives. I believe in this season God is bringing prophetic promises to pass for those who have been found faithful in prayer. God does not only want to bless us, but He wants to use each of us to be a blessing for others. This is why God chooses to bring blessings to those who have been faithful in prayer, because He knows praying people will never stray from Him.

If you want to see things go off the chart in your life, your business, your ministry, your marriage or your family, the mountain of prayer must be what is behind the increase in your life. The more that we pray, declare and decree for the kingdom of God in our lives, the more we are building something big and strong for God to build on.

What you have been praying for is about to be answered and your answered prayers will go off the chart. God is faithful to bring increase and acceleration to those who are found constantly in the place of prayer. I believe God wants to increase and multiply the efforts and prayers of so many in this season. However, we must have the mountain of prayer as our foundation so that God can manifest things in our lives that go off the chart! {eoa}
