

Prophetic Vision: The Lord Says, 'My Angels are Ready to Serve'

I really feel the breath of God on this—to rerelease a word He gave me in 2018. It is so vitally important, not only in this season but also in those to come, to open up our mouths in authority and work with the angels to bring forth what God promised us, this nation and the world.

The “Door of Opportunity” and the “Foyer of His Glory and Splendor”

The Lord caught me up in an open vision. In this vision He showed me a beautiful restaurant. I saw numerous people extremely happy to be stepping through the door of the restaurant; they were smiling and excited to be there. Above the door that they walked through was a sign that said: “Door of Opportunity.” Once they got through the door, they walked through a foyer; the atmosphere of the foyer was covered in His glory, like a wet, sparkling, golden cloud that seemed to fill the very air they breathed. The foyer had a showcase that was wall-to-wall, displaying many things.

In one case, there was a giant nugget of gold that said “Financial Provision”; another case showed mantles and callings with the words: “Ready for the Taking.” Another case had a TV screen that showed signs, wonders, miracles and healings; another case had gems, another had musical instruments, another had a staff and jars of anointing oil. It was a marvelous sight to behold as people were walking through, looking at these cases while their tables were being prepared. These showcases were just highlighting what they could expect in the dining room.

“This is the confidence that we have in Him, that if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us. So if we know that He hears whatever we ask, we know that we have whatever we asked of Him" (1 John 5:14-15).

Your Angelic Server

One by one, couple by couple, family by family an angel would come like a maitre d' and show them to their table. The angel would exclaim, "Your table is ready and is now set before you!" I entered into this main part of the restaurant and saw a dining room like I have never seen before. It was decorated elaborately; it was literally the finest of all fine dining rooms.

As I looked throughout the dining room, I saw some people picking up the menus and ordering. When they ordered, their angel, who was their server, would bring what they ordered to them. The angel who was serving them was almost more excited than the person who was ordering. They brought out mantles, destinies, financial breakthroughs, provision and anointing; they laid before them garments of praise, the ability to do signs, wonders, miracles and healings like they never experienced before. Each table and each person received exactly what they spoke out from the menu, and each menu was unique to the person who was holding it.

"Are they not all ministering spirits sent out to minister to those who will inherit salvation?" (Heb. 1:14).

As I gazed through the dining room, I started noticing that there were some people sitting at the tables that had nothing laid before them. They were holding the menus, but they were not speaking out what they wanted from the menus. The serving angels would come by and gently nudge them. It was as though they were saying to them, "You stepped through the 'Doors of Opportunity.' You walked through the 'Foyer of His Glory and Splendor' and saw what was waiting for you in the dining room. You are now seated at the table set before you, and we are ready to bring you what you want to speak from the menu.”

“My Angels Are Ready to Fulfill My Word”

I looked closer at their menus and saw what was written in them. On the inside, these menus said “My Promises and Plans for you.” Listed below were God’s promises, prophetic words spoken about them and personal dreams and visions that God had shown them. They just needed to speak it out, to decree what has been promised over their lives. The angels were on standby, waiting to bring them whatever they spoke.

2 Corinthians 4:13 says, “We have the same spirit of faith. As it is written, “I believed, and therefore I have spoken.”^[a] So we also believe and therefore speak.”

“[B]efore God whom he believed, and who raises the dead, and calls those things that do not exist as though they did” (Rom. 4:17).

The Lord spoke to me and said, “I have some that come through the open doors and walk in My glory; they sit at the table I have prepared for them, and they call forth and decree in this season what I have promised them. My angels are ready to fulfill My word over their lives. Then I have some who come in and see My glory; they sit at the table I have prepared for them. They even see what is set before others, yet they keep their mouths closed out of fear, pressure, strains of life, past hurts and failures and almost sit in unbelief that I want to do this for them. They marvel at the fact that I would even send forth My angels to bring this to them.”

Psalms 103:20-21 says, “Bless the Lord, you His angels, who are mighty, and do His commands, and obey the voice of His word. Bless the Lord, all you His hosts; you servants who do His pleasure.”

Declare What Has Been Promised!

The Lord said, “I need My people to start decreeing and speaking out the promises I have placed inside of them—the power to call things forth, to speak life and bring forth what I have placed in them.”

Job 22:28 says, “You will also declare a matter, and it will be established unto you; and the light will shine upon your ways.”

And Proverbs 18:21 says, “Death and life are in the power of the tongue, and those who love it will eat its fruit.”

The Lord says, “It’s ready for you. My angels are waiting to serve; I need you to boldly declare what has been promised to you.” {eoa}
