

Prophetic Warning: Now Is the Time to Sound the Alarm of Prayer and Fasting

I had a prophetic dream recently that I immediately knew was very significant for the body of Christ.

In the dream, I was standing next to what appeared to be a large black wall. It was so tall that I could not easily see the top of it. In the dream, I felt the Spirit of the Lord say, "Look up." I looked up but still could not see the top of the wall. I did notice that there were many people standing around the wall. I again felt the Spirit of the Lord speak to me: "Look up, look all the way up to the top."

As I looked again, I could now see that what I thought was just a large black wall was actually a Trojan horse. If you are not familiar with what a Trojan horse is, it is a statue-like figure that has a hidden chamber where things or people can hide within it. Again, the Spirit of the Lord spoke to me, "Look up, look all the way up to the top."

As I looked for the third time, I could now see that the head of this Trojan horse was actually the head of a dog. It specifically looked like the head of a Doberman Pinscher.

The dream shifted, and I could feel an overwhelming demonic presence. I remember feeling at this point in the dream the magnitude of the size and influence of this demonic figure. However, almost immediately after this, I began to feel an even more overwhelming sense of the power and authority of God come upon me.

When I awakened from the dream, I could sense that this dream had been a warning from the Lord. I believe the warning of this dream is that the body of Christ in America must begin to fast and pray for our nation as never before.

Then the Lord spoke to me, "There are many in the political realm who are trying to appear to be there to offer protection. Like guard dogs, they are barking to try to drown out righteous voices and the agenda of God. What is inside of this Trojan horse is a group of demonic forces that will release the demonic realm into the nation more than anyone could even imagine. However, if My church will rise up in this hour in intercession, what I will do will be much bigger than this demonic figure you saw in the dream. If My people will pray, this can be stopped."

The Word clearly states that as sons and daughters of God, we have power and authority over principalities, powers and demonic forces. There is no way this will defeat the children of God, unless we lay down!

Now is the time to sound the alarm of prayer and fasting. Now is the time to fervently intercede for America and even the nations of the earth. May the remnant arise in this hour to take down this demonic Trojan horse disguised as a guard dog! Intercessors, begin to intercede! People of prayer, begin to pray!

This is an urgent and critical hour and we must follow the instruction of 2 Chronicles 7:14: "if My people, who are called by My name, will humble themselves and pray, and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and will heal their land."

God, hear your church in America from heaven, hear our prayers and heal our land! May this demonic Trojan horse be taken down by the prayers of the remnant of God that is awake and alert in this hour! {eoa}
