

Prophetic Word: 2020 a Year of Fulfilled Promises

My wife, Autumn, and I were sharing with one another what we were hearing from God recently. As we shared what God was speaking to us both, we realized the two words went hand in hand. We immediately knew, and felt a sense of great urgency, to release these words to the body of Christ.

Autumn received a word from the Lord in the middle of corporate worship last week. When the Lord spoke to her, He said this, "Look upon the horizon because 2020 is coming. You will be able to see clearly because the rain has stopped. Now that the storms have passed, 2020 will be a bright and shining day for the kingdom of God. Perfect vision is 20/20, and I am going to perfect the vision that I have given you. Things that were foggy, out of focus, disrupted or obscure will become crystal clear for 2020. There is a harvest coming in this new year. I will sharpen your eyes to see the ripe harvest."

As the Lord continued to speak to Autumn, she saw a vision of hands getting dirty in soil. She also saw reapers shaking trees to harvest the ripened fruit. The Lord began to speak to her again, saying, "This will be a year of reaping. 2020 will be a year marked by harvest."

Intercession has churned the atmosphere. The prayers and intercession that have been made for prodigal sons and daughters have been heard. These prayers will be answered, and prodigals will be released. Many prodigals will return home. Captives will leave their chains behind. Sickness will flee from bodies. A wave of awakening will sweep across the land and souls are in the current. Get your vision ready.

Your vision will need to be clear in order to see the harvest. Clear vision will move you into position to help restore the souls that will be swept into the kingdom. Get your vision ready to see clearly because the rain has passed. 2020 is on the horizon. Look upon the horizon, and prepare to see clearly into the future.

The Lord spoke so powerfully to Autumn about preparing for the year 2020 because it is on the horizon. This is an hour where we must look upon the horizon and be ready for all God will do in the upcoming year and seasons to come.

The Lord recently spoke to me through a vision confirming so much of what the Lord was also speaking to Autumn. In the vision, I was looking out over a beautiful field at nighttime. Then I saw the sun begin to rise over the horizon. The rising sun began to light up parts of the field, and I could see that there was dew on the ground.

As the sun continued to rise, I began to see different parts of the field. As they were touched by the rays of sunlight, everything began to flourish. Everywhere the light touched, I could see things beginning to bloom. Fruit was beginning to grow and become ripe, ready for harvest. I knew that the Lord was showing me through this vision that there is something powerful on the horizon for the body of Christ.

In 2020, the sun will rise, and it will give light to every seed that has been planted. Each seed will grow and produce fruit. I believe that every prophetic word, every seed that you have sown has been watered in past seasons. Those who have stewarded well the prophetic words God has given them will now see those fulfilled.

The dawn of the upcoming year will cause everything to grow as the sun rises. Many have endured seasons of darkness, delay, trials and tribulations where they had no clear vision of what was on the horizon. It will not be this way in 2020, my friends!

The sun is rising and growth is springing forth. God is getting ready to do so much in this upcoming season, and we must prepare for it now. Make sure you are in position to see those long-delayed prophetic words fully manifested. 2020 will be a year of perfected vision, and believers will be able to operate with greater focus and divine clarity. The sun will rise, and we must look upon the horizon now to begin positioning ourselves for all that God will do in the new year.

I believe 2020 will be a year where all of the things that God has planted and watered will begin to bloom and produce much fruit. Many have been waiting for the sun to rise in different situations for many years. 2020 will be a year of fulfilled promises and great harvest.

Just as the Lord spoke to Autumn, this is a season and a time where we need to allow the Lord to perfect our vision. 2020 will be a year where fruit will come forth, and promises will be fulfilled. The harvest is ripe, and we need to be in place with perfected vision to steward it. As we approach 2020, look upon the horizon and expect to see clearly what God will do. The seasons of confusion and delay are over; the sun is rising, and a new day is beginning to dawn!
