

Prophetic Word From Curt Landry: The Lion Will Roar Again

Most followers of Jesus are familiar with the story from Matthew 7:15 in which wolves are disguised in sheep's clothing. A similar vision has been given to Curt Landry, but in his scene, the sheep are not hiding foreboding wolves but roaring lions. In this prophetic vision, the Lord revealed to Landry a vision of America's future in the next year.

It's time for the bold in faith, those approved by God, to stand for the sake of righteousness, Landry says.

Those who have stood for the Lord will not be forgotten, and they will be like the lions: roaring, not wandering, through the wilderness.

Find out how this correlates with America's destiny and what America must die to in order to achieve this right standing with the Lord.
