

Prophetic Word: God Will Open Many Doors in October

Last month, the Lord spoke to me about September being a super month. I sensed that September would be marked by the supernatural and superabundant blessings. I believe this word came to pass for many!

At the very beginning of this month, the Lord spoke to me again and said the word for October is "open."

In the month of October, I believe God will give many people keys to open doors. The keys God will give you in this season will unlock doors of insight, revelation, opportunity and favor.

Over the next 90 days, it will be critical to lean into the Holy Spirit and what He is saying to you specifically. Ask the Lord what voices you need to glean from in this hour. Find experts in the field where God wants you to grow and gain knowledge. God will use key voices to bring you insight to help you unlock certain doors in the future.

The prophetic word for the month of October is "open." Yes, God is giving people open doors and keys to open doors. However, I also feel that God is going to give many relationships in this hour.

Many may hear this and think it is wrong. I don't mean that God is going to give you relationships just to open doors. Instead, I believe if you are healthy and whole in your walk with God, God will give you the right relationships. Then you will be able to step into what God has for you. God will not open a door for you if you are not ready for it. Allow God to open the right doors for you at the right time.

This season will be special for those who have been found faithful in the place of prayer. Just like before David became king, he was out in the wilderness tending to his father's sheep. There are many who have been hidden in the wilderness and their time of elevation and anointing is coming!

For those that have been faithful in secret, God is about to reward them openly! There is a remnant God is about to open doors for. For some doors will be opened. Unfortunately, that means for others, doors will be closed. Make sure you are tapped into the things of God in this season, because October will be open.

Where things have looked closed, God is about to open them up. Step into October with faith because this will be an open October! {eoa}
